60 of the Funniest Movies of All Time

Laughing increases your enjoyment of life and helps keep you looking and feeling young and vibrant. It sends endorphins coursing through your veins and makes you feel good!! Watching something funny is an easy 'state change' when you're feeling down or anxious and want to feel better fast.

My funny movie list is a compilation of my personal favorites with selections from lists on the Internet. I put it together so you'll have a list that's ready and waiting for you when you want to use the power of laughter.

Although I chose these movies for their wide appeal, you may want to do a little research yourself to see if it fits with your sense of humour! I know this from personal experience because my husband's humour is more Life of Brian and mine is more Airplane. By the way, several lists and I agree: Airplane (1980) is the #1 funniest movie of all time. Be adventurous – many of the movies from the early part of the 20th century are delightful!

You can watch these movies free, or for a small fee or monthly subscription on the Internet, You Tube, Netflix, 'on demand' from your local cable company and in the DVD and BluRay bins at Walmart and other discount stores.

Note: You may also want to research funny TV series on YouTube or the Internet. You can watch episodes of old favorites such as The Carol Burnett Show or The Beverly Hillbillies or laugh out loud at scenes from The Simpsons and other recent series. My current favorite is Modern Family. Enjoy!
